PBCMS/HERC Opioid Task Force
PBCMS and the Healthcare Emergency Response Coalition will convene an Opioid Task Force this month. The purpose of the Task Force will be to educate and raise physician, hospital, healthcare provider and community awareness

- About prescription opioid-related morbidity and mortality, and what steps can be taken to promote the safe use of this important class of medications;
- On the intersection of prescription opioid misuse with the resurgence in heroin use and addiction;
- How the clinical practice environment for pain management and opioid prescribing has been influenced by the public and private sector;
- Alternative therapies for treatment;
- On recommendations for promoting safe opioid use in different patient populations.

There is also a critical need to discuss how to support comprehensive treatment for pain and substance abuse disorders and prevention strategies. For additional information contact John James, Director of Public Health & Disaster Services at johnj@pbcms.org.

Opioid Crisis: Lawmakers Look For Solutions In Palm Beach County
State legislators came to Palm Beach County Tuesday to discuss the opioid crisis.
County officials, first responders, treatment professionals and advocates offered up stories from the front lines and ideas for reducing overdoses and deaths. Florida Senate Appropriations Chairman Jack Latvala of Clearwater said he was surprised by the turnout. Click here to read more at Health News Florida.
